NATURE OF BUSINESS

The Company was originally incorporated under the laws of British Columbia ("BC") on June 21, 1989, was continued into Saskatchewan on November 13, 2007 and was continued back into BC on May 28, 2014. The Company is a reporting issuer in BC, Alberta, Ontario, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland and Labrador. The Company's common shares are traded on the TSX Venture Exchange under the symbol "FOM". The Company's principal business activity is the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties with the objective of discovering mineral reserves and the development of an operating mine.

To date the Company has not generated any revenues.

OUTLOOK

In November 2014, the Company announced the results of a positive Preliminary Economic Assessment ("PEA") on the Company's flagship project, the 100% owned McIlvenna Bay deposit ("McIlvenna Bay Deposit") located within the Hanson Lake Volcanogenic Massive Sulphide ("VMS") Camp in east-central Saskatchewan, approximately 65 kilometres ("km") west of Flin Flon, Manitoba. The PEA estimated that the project had a pre-tax net present value using a seven percent discount rate ("NPV_{7%}") of $381.7 million, a 21.9% internal rate of return ("IRR") and a 4.1 year payback; post-tax NPV_{7%} of $262.6 million, a 18.9% IRR and a 4.1 year payback. The PEA envisions an average throughput rate of 4,800 tonnes per day as a conventional underground operation with pre-production capital cost estimated at $248.8 million. Sustaining capital is estimated at $150.3 million. Based on the positive results of the PEA, Management believes a Feasibility Study should be conducted on the McIlvenna Bay Deposit.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS FOR THE SIX MONTH PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2016

For additional information on the Mcllvenna Bay Deposit PEA, see the Company's news release dated November 12, 2014 and the Company's PEA report entitled "Preliminary Economic Assessment Technical Report Mcllvenna Bay Project, Saskatchewan, Canada" revised January 21, 2015 at www.foranmining.com or www.sedar.com.

Management's long-term strategy is to develop and build a new base metal mining camp in the Flin Flon region, with the large tonnage Mcllvenna Bay deposit providing the centre of gravity necessary to support the construction of a central mill and concentrator. Exploration in the area continues to identify new exploration targets and enhance both historic deposits and mineral occurrences which could provide future mill feed to an operation at Mcllvenna Bay. The Company plans to realize its strategy by continuing to advance the Mcllvenna Bay Deposit, while simultaneously advancing new discoveries and historic resources within the Hanson Lake VMS Camp.

Management is contemplating various strategies to secure financing required for general corporate purposes, the advancement of satellite deposits in the Hanson Lake VMS Camp, a Feasibility Study for the Mcllvenna Bay Deposit and the construction of a mine in the Hanson Lake VMS Camp.

SUMMARY OF QUARTERLY RESULTS (continued)

Together, share-based payments expense and salaries and benefits comprised a significant portion (between 43% in Q2, 2016 and 60% in Q4, 2015) of the expenses which contributed to the net loss for each of the quarters from Q2, 2014 to Q1, 2016.

The share-based payments expense was the fair value of the stock options that vested in each respective quarter.

Salaries and benefits in Q4, 2015 included a severance accrual of $84,630 for the Company's Vice President of Corporate Development who was terminated in December 2015 as a result of market conditions and cost-cutting measures. Salaries and benefits also included amounts of $12,000 in each of Q2, 2016, Q1, 2016 and Q4, 2015, $20,000 in Q3, 2015, $24,000 in Q2, 2015 and $32,000 in Q1, 2015, respectively, relating to compensation for the Company's Executive Chairman pursuant to the DSU Plan. Other expenses in Q3 and Q2, 2015 included amounts of $16,000 and $32,000, respectively, for directors' fees (see 'Financial Condition' above). Other expenses include items such as amortization, directors' fees, investor relations costs, office and administration, professional fees and travel and accommodation.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company has in place a planning and budgeting process to determine the funds required to support the Company's operating requirements as well as its planned capital expenditures. The Company manages its financial resources to ensure that there is sufficient working capital to fund near term planned exploration work and operating expenditures. The Company has considerable discretion to reduce or increase plans or budgets depending on current or projected liquidity. When appropriate, the Company will seek joint venture partners in order to fund or share the funding of its exploration properties to minimize shareholder risk.

The Company does not currently own or have an interest in any producing mineral properties and does not derive any revenues from operations. Operational activities have been funded through private placements. At June 30, 2016, the Company had working capital of $1,494,659 (December 31, 2015: $969,749). While the Company has been successful in securing financing to date, there can be no assurances that it will be able to do so in the future. These uncertainties raise significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company has no bank debt or banking credit facilities in place.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

The Company has an estimated future minimum lease payment of approximately $37,000 relating to an office lease that expires June 30, 2017.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

Significant assumptions about the future and other sources of estimation uncertainty that Management has made that could result in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the event that actual results differ from assumptions made, relate to, but are not limited to, the following:

- i) Critical accounting estimates

Critical accounting estimates are estimates and assumptions made by Management that may result in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year and include, but are not limited to, the following:

Share-based payments

The fair value of share-based payments is subject to the limitations of the Black-Scholes option pricing model that incorporates market data and involves uncertainty in estimates used by Management in the assumptions. Because the Black-Scholes option pricing model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the volatility of share prices, changes in subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate.

- ii) Critical accounting judgments

Information about critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements include, but are not limited to, the following:

Recovery of deferred tax assets

The Company estimates the expected manner and timing of the realization or settlement of the carrying value of its assets and liabilities and applies the tax rates that are enacted or substantively enacted on the estimated dates of realization or settlement.

The going concern assumption

The assessment of whether the going concern assumption is appropriate requires management to take into account all available information about the future, which is at least, but is not limited to, 12 months from the end of the reporting period. The Company is aware that material uncertainties related to events or conditions may cast significant doubt upon the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Impairment

The assessment of any impairment of plant and equipment and exploration and evaluation assets is dependent upon estimates of recoverable amounts that take into account factors such as reserves, economic and market conditions and the useful lives of assets. Judgment is required in assessing the appropriate level of cash generating units to be tested for such impairment.

Decommissioning liabilities

In the event that decommissioning liabilities are required to be recognized, such liabilities would be stated at the fair value of estimated future costs. Such estimates require extensive judgment about the nature, cost and timing of the work to be completed, and may change with future changes to costs, environmental laws and regulations and remediation practices.

A detailed summary of all of the Company's significant accounting policies is included in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks which are discussed in detail in Note 9 of the Company's condensed consolidated interim financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2016.

As at the date of this report, there were 96,656,275 common shares issued and outstanding.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The principal risk faced in the advanced exploration stage is the ability to raise the funds required to further assess the viability of a mineral deposit. This phase requires high expenditures to determine if a deposit may be profitable to mine. The Company does not operate any producing properties and as such, is dependent on the ability to raise funds. Although the Company believes it has sufficient access to financial markets to support its intended work plan, failure to do so would result in future work being suspended. While the Company has been successful in securing financing to date, there can be no assurances that it will be able to do so in the future. These uncertainties raise significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Financial assets and liabilities consist of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, investments, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and deferred share units. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest or credit risks arising from these financial assets and liabilities.

The Company's activities involve the application for permits from Provincial authorities and such activities are governed by various laws and regulations that cover the protection of the environment, land use, exploration, development, co-ordination of operations and infrastructure with third parties engaged in other activities on the lands, taxes, labour standards, occupational health, waste disposal, safety and other matters. Environmental legislation in Canada provides restrictions and prohibitions on spills and various substances produced in association with certain exploration activities which would result in environmental pollution. A breach of such legislation may result in imposition of fines and penalties. In addition, certain types of activities require the submission and approval of environmental impact statements. Environmental legislation is evolving in a direction of higher standards and enforcement, and higher fines and penalties for non-compliance. Environmental assessments of proposed projects carry a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and directors, officers and employees. The cost of compliance with changes in governmental regulations has the potential to reduce the profitability of future operations.

The Company believes that it is in compliance with all material laws and regulations which currently apply to its activities. There can be no absolute assurance, however, that all permits which the Company may require for exploration activities and land use will be obtainable on reasonable terms or on a timely basis, or that such laws and regulations will not have an adverse effect on any exploration projects that the Company may undertake.

Mineral exploration involves many risks, which even a combination of experience, knowledge and careful evaluation may not be able to overcome. Operations within the Company will be subject to all the hazards and risks normally incidental to exploration, development and production of minerals, any of which could result in work stoppages, damage to property, and possible environmental damage. Unusual or unexpected formations, formation pressures, fires, power outages, labour disruption, impaired access to site, legal or regulatory changes, flooding, explosions, cave-ins, landslides, weather conditions and the inability to obtain suitable or adequate machinery, equipment or labour are other risks involved in extraction operations and the conduct of exploration programs. The Company's exploration activities will be subject to the availability of third party contractors and equipment. There are also physical risks to the exploration personnel. If any of the Company's properties are found to have commercial quantities of mineralization, the Company could be subject to additional risks respecting any development and production activities.

All of the properties in which the Company has an interest are in the exploration stage and are currently without reserves. Development of these mineral properties will only follow upon obtaining satisfactory exploration results, receipt of positive engineering studies, access to adequate funding, community support and all necessary permits, licenses and approvals. Mineral exploration and development involves a high degree of risk and few properties which are explored are ultimately developed into producing mines. Substantial expenditures are required to establish reserves through drilling and to develop the mining and processing facilities and the infrastructure at any site chosen for mining. There is no assurance that these mineral exploration and development activities will result in any discoveries of commercial mineral deposits. The long-term profitability of the Company's operations will be in part directly related to the cost and success of its exploration programs, which may be affected by a number of factors beyond the Company's control.

Factors beyond the control of the Company may affect the market price of minerals produced and the marketability of any ore or minerals discovered at and extracted from the Company's properties. Metal prices are subject to significant fluctuation and are affected by numerous factors beyond the Company's control including international economic, financial and political events, global or regional supply and demand patterns and speculative activities. The effect of these factors on the Company's operations cannot accurately be predicted.
